

Pasado's Pen Pals Fact Sheet:

Victor the Goat

Birthday: January 11, 2010 | Rescued: December 2021

Male

Favorite Treat: Saltine crackers

Favorite thing to do: Snack and nap in the hay

Best friend: Katherine the human, and Delilah goat

Favorite color: Green – the color of all my yummiest snacks

Favorite season: Fall

Fun goat fact: Goats are herd animals and will become depressed if kept without any goat companions. So, it is unhealthy for a goat to live as a solo pet.

Website bio: Hay there! There's nothing I love more than a fresh pile of hay and a new friend to meet! I am a big goat with a big personality to match. We can talk all about friends, our favorite games, and our favorite snacks!

Violet the Pig

Birthday: May 15, 2016 | Rescued: November 2018

Female

Favorite Treat: Blackberry vines

Favorite thing to do: Get belly rubs and take naps

Best friends: The humans that feed me

Favorite color: Purple – it's in my name! 😊

Favorite holiday: Halloween, because I love to eat the pumpkins

Favorite season: Fall

Fun pig fact: Mother pigs sing to their babies while nursing. Newborn piglets learn to run towards their mothers' voices and pigs constantly communicate with each other.

Website bio: Oink, oink! I am a friendly girl that likes to meet new humans. Some of my passions in life are napping and snacking, but I also love to explore my sanctuary yard. I hope you'll write to me so I can share all my fun facts about pigs!

Frank the Turkey

Birthday: December 26, 2018 | Rescued: November 2019

Male

Favorite Treat: Blackberries

Favorite thing to do: Going for walks around the sanctuary

Best friend: the Caregivers who go on walks with me!

Favorite color: Red – it looks great on me, just look at my beautiful bright red head

Favorite music: 80's pop music

Fun turkey fact: You can tell a turkey's emotions by the color of their heads. Colors can change from red to blue to white, depending on how excited or calm they are. The more intense the colors are, the more intense their emotions.

Website bio: Gobble! Gobble! I am a proud turkey who loves to talk, so I can't wait to talk to you! I love getting to show people how smart my turkey friends and I are.

Ace the Llama

Birthday: May 22, 2016 | Rescued: March 2024

Male

Favorite Treat: Llama grain, apple slices

Favorite thing to do: Graze on grass and people watch

Best friend: Lenny and Shaggy llamas

Favorite color: Yellow, like sunshine

Fun llama fact: Llamas are related to camels and alpacas. Like alpaca, mother llamas hum to their babies and llamas hum to communicate!

Another fun llama fact: Llamas use their eyes to show their mood. Ears upright show interest or happiness. Ears pinned back mean they are annoyed. If you don't want a llama to spit on you, treat them kindly and watch their ears!

Website bio: Hi friend! Ace is the name and treats are my game. I love meeting new people, but I prefer that they approach with a handful of snacks first. Once you're my pal, I love to spend time together grazing on grass. I can't wait to tell you all about what it's like to be a rescued llama at the sanctuary!

Harvee the Chicken

Birthday: August 23, 2014 | Rescued: August 2016

Female

Favorite Treat: Mealworms

Favorite thing to do: Playing and building nests in fresh shavings

Best friends: I love my whole flock! Picasso, Nancy, and Sonja chickens

Favorite color: Red – it is bright and beautiful, just like the “crown,” or comb, on my head!

Fun chicken fact: While it might just sound like a bunch of clucking to an unfamiliar observer, chicken “language” consists of at least 24 different vocalizations! This doesn’t even include how they communicate through visual displays.

Website bio: Cluck cluck! I am always the first one in the chicken yard to greet everyone and I want to be your pal to greet you! We can learn all about each other, like how my old relatives were the dinosaurs!

Willa the Cow

Birthday: September 4, 2020 | Rescued: September 2024

Female

Favorite treat: Hay

Favorite thing to do: Explore the forest in my yard and get hay snacks at the fence from visitors

Best friend: Valentine the cow

Favorite color: Blue, like the big sky above me

Favorite game: Hide and seek

Fun cow fact: Just like you, cows have best friends. Not only does companionship make cows happier, it also makes them smarter.

Website bio: Moo! Hi there. I'm Willa and I'm new around here but have already made many friends, and would love to be your friend too! I am a gentle giant who loves scratches behind the ears and eating all the snacks! Please send me a letter, so I can share stories about my cow herd at the sanctuary!

ADOPTED

Jethro the Pig

Age: 5 | Birthday: March 23, 2017 | Rescued: March 2021

Male

Favorite Treat: Cheerios

Favorite thing to do: Get belly rubs and cuddle with his humans

Best friends: The pot belly girls: Hannah, Mara, and Chiquita

Favorite color: Pink – I am the only pink pig in my family herd, which makes me feel special!

Fun pig fact: mother pigs sing to their babies while nursing. Newborn piglets learn to run towards their mothers' voices and pigs constantly communicate with each other.

Website bio: Oink, oink! I am very loyal to my friends. If you write me, I promise to write you back! I'll try not to get the card too muddy!

Ole the Donkey

Age: 20 | Birthday: March 8, 2002 | Rescued: March 2016

Male

Favorite Treat: Everything! Loves salty and sweet.

Favorite thing to do: Solving treat puzzles, being brushed by human friends and play fighting with his friend Jacques

Best friends: Jacques the Donkey

Favorite color: Teal – I have a teal jacket I wear when it's cold and my BFF Jacques has a purple one!

Fun donkey fact: Donkeys have a very strong sense of self-preservation! What is often attributed to stubbornness is actually the careful analysis of a situation and whether it might pose a threat or may be unpleasant for them. Donkeys are thinkers and like to have information so they can make safe and desired choices for themselves.

Website bio: Best friends are really important to me. Maybe you can be my new best friend! I have so much to tell you about how fun it is being a donkey at the sanctuary and who my best friends are here at Pasado's Safe haven!

Betty the Sheep

Age: 2 | Birthday: July 15, 2017 | Rescued: June 2020

Female

Favorite Treat: Saltines, evergreen tree branches

Favorite thing to do: Spending time with her herd and following the Caregivers around for attention; making people smile

Best friends: Trinity the Sheep (I help look out for my special needs friend) and all of my herd

Favorite color: Yellow – it is bright, happy and cheerful, like me

Fun sheep fact: Sheep are quite clever! They can navigate mazes and have been found to use their excellent memory to memorize how to get through them quickly!

Website bio: Baaa! I love my herd and love to meet new friends! Become my Pen Pal and I can tell you all about my life at a farm sanctuary, and how I like to 'help' my caregivers with their chores!

Jacques the Donkey

Birthday: March 8, 2003 | Rescued: March 2016

Male

Favorite Treat: Everything! Loves salty and sweet.

Favorite thing to do: Solving treat puzzles, being brushed by human friends and play fighting with his friend Ole

Best friends: Ole the donkey

Favorite color: Yellow – it's bright and cheery like the sun (and me!)

Fun donkey fact: Donkeys have a very strong sense of self-preservation! What is often attributed to stubbornness is actually the careful analysis of a situation and whether it might pose a threat or may be unpleasant for them. Donkeys are thinkers and like to have information so they can make safe and desired choices for themselves.

Website bio: Would you like to be my friend? Best friends are very important to me, which is why I am never far from my best donkey friend, Ole! We love grazing in our pasture and greeting new friends who visit. Maybe we will get to meet you one day!

Kendrick the Sheep

Birthday: July 15, 2019 | Rescued: June 2020

Male

Favorite Treat: Saltines, evergreen tree branches

Favorite thing to do: Spending time with his herd and making people smile

Best friends: Otis the sheep and all of my herd – and you!

Favorite color: Orange

Fun sheep fact: Sheep are quite clever! They can navigate mazes and have been found to use their excellent memory to memorize how to get through them quickly!

Website bio: It's woolly great to meet you! Some of my favorite things in life are a good head scratch and a great friend. I also like to try new things! What is something new you've tried recently?

Hope the Cow

Age: 5 | Birthday: October 24, 2017 | Rescued: April 2022

Female

Favorite Treat: Watermelon, pumpkin, and hay

Favorite thing to do: Spend time with her best friends and play ball or get brushed by her Caregivers

Best friend: Abbey Rose and Belle the cows

Favorite color: Green – like the large pastures full of fresh grass at the sanctuary and my yummy hay snacks

Fun cow fact: Just like you, cows have best friends. Not only does companionship make cows happier, it also makes them smarter.

Website bio: Mooou! How are yooooou? I love to make friends and I'm so excited to tell you about all the new ones I have met at the sanctuary since my rescue. I love to play ball with my Caregivers! You can tell me all about your favorite games to play

Journey the Cow

Birthday: July 15, 2018 | Rescued: July 2018 (Mom, Peaches, rescued 1 day before he was born!)

Male

Favorite Treat: Alfalfa hay, "cow cookies" made from orchard grass

Favorite thing to do: Spend time with his herd and get treats from visitors

Best friend: Tonka the cow

Favorite color: Blue – like the big blue sky above my pasture

Fun cow fact: Just like you, cows have best friends. Not only does companionship make cows happier, it also makes them smarter.

Website bio: Mooou! How are yooooou? I enjoy making new friends and talking all about my life as a cow at Pasado's Safe Haven. I've lived here since I was a baby calf, so I have lots to tell you about growing up at a sanctuary!

Shakira the Llama

Female

Favorite Treat: Romaine lettuce

Favorite thing to do: Morning dust baths and watching over her flock

Best friends: Sonny and Cher sheep

Favorite color: Green – like the color of the lush grass in my pasture

Fun llama fact: Llamas are related to camels and alpacas. Like alpaca, mother llamas hum to their babies and llamas hum to communicate!

Website bio: Hi there! I'm Shakira and I'm new around here but have already made many friends, and would love to be your friend too! I love exploring my yard and looking after all my sheep and goat friends, it's a big job!

Stella the Turkey

Age: 4 | Birthday: January 4, 2019 | Rescued: November 2019

Female

Favorite Treat: Blueberries and blackberries

Favorite thing to do: Being where the action is and getting attention

Best friend: Tallulah and Frank the Turkeys

Favorite color: Purple – it is bright and reminds me of yummy berries like blackberries; there are lots of shades of purple which is exciting because I love colors!

Favorite music: Classical music and when my Caregivers sing to me

Fun turkey fact: You can tell a turkey's emotions by the color of their heads. Colors can change from red to blue to white, depending on how excited or calm they are. The more intense the colors are, the more intense their emotions.

Website bio: Do you like music? Me too! It makes me happy when my caregivers sing to me or play music for me. If you become my pen pal, I'll be super happy! I can't wait to show you how smart my turkey friends are, and the cool things we can do!

Moe the Alpaca

Birthday: August 31, 2011 | Rescued: Feb 2016

Male

Favorite Treat: Anything peanut butter flavored!

Favorite thing to do: Stand in my wading pool on hot days, enjoy dandelion treats from humans

Best friends: Curly and Larry alpacas

Favorite color: Yellow

Favorite season: Fall

Fun alpaca fact: Alpacas will hum when they are happy! Mother alpacas and baby alpacas (cria) often hum to each other.

FORMER PEN PALS (now across the “Rainbow Bridge”)

Smudge the Goat

Age: 12 | Birthday: July 11, 2010 | Rescued: July 2018

Female

Favorite Treat: Dandelions and saltine crackers

Favorite thing to do: Sunbathe

Best friend: Gracie the Goat

Favorite color: Blue – like my best friend Gracie’s eyes and the sunny skies at the sanctuary

Fun goat fact: Goats are herd animals and will become depressed if kept without any goat companions. So, it is unhealthy for a goat to live with a family just owns one as a pet.

Website bio: Well, hello! I am kind of the friendliest goat, ever. I can’t wait to tell you about my life at Pasado’s Safe Haven and how cool it is to be a goat! I’ve even visited classrooms! Maybe one day, you can visit me! Let’s be pals!

Curly the Alpaca

Birthday: February 27, 2010 | Rescued: Feb 2016

Male

Favorite Treat: Brussel sprouts

Favorite thing to do: Solve treat puzzles, people watch

Best friends: Moe and Larry alpacas

Favorite color: Orange

Favorite season: Fall

Fun alpaca fact: Alpacas will hum when they are happy! Mother alpacas and baby alpacas (cria) often hum to each other.

Website bio: My name is Curly, and I march to the beat of my own drum! I’m not always quick to say hello, but I am an alpaca expert. If you want to know more about how cool us alpacas are, write to me!
